While Emma Goldman and Herr Most are both batant anarchists, they are enemies. Indeed, it may be said that Herr Most is her most inveterate enemy. He criticised her once and she gave him a horse-whipping.

YESTERDAY morning about 5 o'clock the fire department was summoned by a still alarm to the residence of Mr. John Smith on upper Main street, to extinguish a small blaze which originated from the gas meter. As usual the chemical engine did the work and the blaze was extinguished without the aid of water. The damage was nominal.

THE management of the Grand Opera House in this city yesterday booked for a Christmas Eve attraction the celebrated Forty-eighth Highlanders' Band (The Kilties) which made such a hit on their previous engagement in this city during the past season. This is one of the finest bands on the road. They have just finished a three weeks' engagement at the Buffalo Exposition, and are booked for a two weeks' return engagement.

It is earnestly requested that every property owner in Paris have his business house or residence properly numbered. The city authorities are going to work immediately to have tin signs placed on the corner of every street, and as soon as that is accomplished and the houses are properly numbered free delivery will at once be established. The postoffice inspector will be here on the first of October, and if the houses and streets are properly named and numbered he will make a favorable report to Washington and the free delivery will be established within thirty days.

A GOOD play does more to stir the heart and start the human machinery of life going in every possible direction than any influence under the sun. It develops the emotions just as the study of Latin and Greek develop the mind. Your corpuscles will never get rusty or pale if you keep up with the theater. A good play works on the better nature more subtly, the affections, the impulses develop, and ways and means come to your hands and heart by which much good may be done, and in moving mountains or wiping out evil conditions that have grown for years, by the wisk of a lace handkerchief.—Matinee Girl in Dramatic Mirror.

Sale Postponed.

Owing to the inclement weather, the sale of the old Ingels property, advertised to be sold last Saturday, was postponed until next Tuesday, Sept. 24th, at 2 o'clock. This property will be sold on that day, and offers an excellent opportunity to those wishing nice residence property.

McKinley Memorial Services.

At a meeting of the ministers of the various churches and a committee from the City Council yesterday morning it was decided to hold memorial services to the memory of President McKinley on Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The manager of the Opera House donated the use of that building which was accepted. Mr. T. Earl Ashbrook will preside and addresses will be delivered by Judge H. Clay Howard and Hon. Claude Thomas. A chorus of one hundred children from the public school will render several songs and a quartette will sing "Lead Kindly Light" and "Nearer My God To Thee," the President's favorite songs. The ministers of the city will deliver eulogies on the life and character of the martyred President. The lobby, auditorium and stage will be tastefully draped in black.

Ask your dealer for a Stoner, .5 cen cigar, home made.

Death of the President.

The news of the death of President McKinley was received in this city within ten minutes of its occurrence on Saturday morning, and the tolling of the fire bells and the bells of the various churches notified the people. Notwithstanding the telegraph bulletins had prepared our people for the worst, the news of his demise was in the nature of a shock. Early Saturday morning the City Hall and postoffice were draped in mourning.

As soon as the arrangements are definitely made for the memorial services on Thursday, the Mayor will issue a proclamation asking all merchants to close their places of business from 10:30 to 12 o'clock, the hours of the funeral.

The "Who, What, When," Minstrels.

The above company gave a splendid performance at the Grand last night to a good house. It was one of the best singing shows ever seen at the Grand. On account of a conflict of authority over the lease of the Richmond Opera House the company has to-night open, and the management of the local house has arranged to have them appear again to-night giving an entire change of performance and at the remarkably low prices of admission of 10, 20 and 30 cents. The house should be packed to the doors. There will be no reserved seats, the entire lower floor being 30 cents; the balcony 20 cents and the gallery 10 cents.

Hon. John D. Harris Seriously Ill.

The Hon. John D. Harris, ex-State Senator and former candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor, lies critically ill at his country home, Blythwood, four miles south of Richmond, and his condition is arousing the gravest apprehensions. Two weeks ago he had an operation performed in Louisville, and, returning home, suffered a relapse. He has been steadily growing worse. His physicians pronounced him a very sick man. His children, the wife of ex-Auditor S. H. Stone, of Louisville, and the wife of the Hon. C. M. Clay, of this county, have been summoned by telegram to his bedside. Senator Harris who is seventy-one years old, is one of the wealthiest and best-known men in Kentucky, and on account of his age grave fears are felt as to the result of his illness.

See that you get a Stoner when you call for it. Home made.

Change of Firm.

Reunion of the Orphan Brigade.

The reunion of the famous Orphan Brigade, C. S. A., will be held in Louisville, September 19 and 20. Some 300 survivors of the command that fought over almost the entire South without once entering the home State will be present. Many of its members were from Louisville, where, as young men, they stole the arms provided for them as members of the State guard and left the city on freight trains. The brigade fought desperately at Whippoorwill Bridge, Ky., Fort Donaldson, Shiloh, Vicksburg, Baton Rouge, Cumberland Gap, Hartsville, Missionary Ridge, and Lookout Mountain and harassed Sherman on his famous raid. Perhaps no command in the Confederate army was in so many engagements and covered so much territory.

You Do, or You Don't Need Glasses :

The eye being a rather delicate organ, great care should be exercised in the selection of proper glasses. Many believe that glasses should be restored to only when the sight becomes so defective as not to be able to do without. This is a great mistake which must be combatted. Whenever there is unmistakable evidence of the need of their aid, they should be used. A neglect of this rule sometimes produces mischief which results in serious trouble if the course be persisted in.

Our Dr. C. H. POWEN having just returned from taking a special course in Optics from one of the best specialists in New York, is prepared to do the best work, having the latest improved methods of fitting. Examinations free. Next visit Thursday, Sept. 26, 1901.
